3:30 A. M.—The conflagration appears to have taken a fresh start and the flames are rushing up Devonshire and Congress streets toward Slate street. Large amounts of powder are now brought to the scene, and the authorities are blowing up buildings. Near the Postoffice the thunder of explosion adds a new terror, and with the roar of the fire, the scene is a terrific confusion of sounds that overawes and appalls the senses.

The Transcript, Post and Times offices are in great danger. The Transcript employees are hurrying to escape, and promptly finished its building to them.

4:40 A. M.—There is no abatement as yet of the fire, except where the buildings had been blown up. Thousands of persons are homeless. The open people. The U. S. Marines garrison are now on duty. Boston Common is crowded with goods, which to a large amount have been placed there. The fire has crossed Washington street, and is now burning in new flames. The Parker House is destroyed. The Catholic Pilot Publishing House was consumed about 12 o'clock A. M. Engines were sent from Springfield, Worcester, Lynn, Lawrence, and other small towns, but they all promptly responded to the call for aid. The telegraph wires are all down. Boston, Nov. 11—4:30 A. M.—The fire broke out with renewed vigor about midnight. The alarm was given, and there it raged. It was caused by exploded gas in the buildings occupied by Wm. R. Starrs & Co., in Summer street. The front walls of the building to the store, which extended back into the rear of the lot, and the explosion threw the firemen for some minutes were deterred from going too close to the burning building, but deemed the danger they soon had streams playing on the burning building. From the corner of Summer and Washington streets, communicated to the extensive building on the corner of Summer and Washington streets, occupied on the ground floor by Messrs. Shiplee, Crump and Law, jewelers and dealers in high priced goods, and the second story occupied by Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machine warehouses, Lowell and Brett, engravers, and three custom tailors. Efforts to stay the progress of the flames pid succession. A number of soldiers and firemen were prostrated, and several of them were seriously injured. Martha Hutchison jumped from a second story to the pavement, and was seriously injured. Her recovery is considered doubtful.

In less than half an hour the magnificent block on the corner of Washington and Summer streets was destroyed.

10 A.M.—The fire is now thoroughly extinguished. The wind has shifted to the west. Engines are still at work, pouring a continual stream of water on the ruins. The wind has not increased, and there are hopes that the fire will not again break out.

Nearly all the firemen are thoroughly exhausted by their almost superhuman exertions during the last thirty-six ours. The police and military are almost worn out. Their clothing is almost all soiled and badly soiled. The greatest credit is due to the police for their efforts toward maintaining rising from the conflagration. The Committee of citizens have nobly directed affairs in the public streets and squares.

The entire city is covered with a heavy cloud of smoke, making it so dark in some places that lights have to be lit.

The firemen are completely exhausted and are unable to relieve them.

There are one hundred and eighty-five steam and hand-engines at work this morning.

The firemen all around the burning buildings are blowing the fire with all the power of their fire belt to prevent any possible chance of its spreading any further. It is generally conceded that the fire is completely under control and cannot spread any further.

At 8 A. M. the fire is still under control and has been since 8 A. M.

The crowds in the streets in the vicinity of the burning district are immense. Since morning the inquiries at the police headquarters after missing persons have increased greatly, and it is feared that the number of victims who have perished in the flames will be considerably under-estimated. A good many persons were injured and several killed.

A battalion of cavalry has been added to the military to guard the burning district, which now numbers 1,500. The fire is being steadily and rapidly but will be summarily dealt with. The streets are almost impassable from the crowds in the vicinity of the fire. Only three of the seven banks were burned out, and failed to settle with the clear-

Boston, Nov. 11.—The loss is now estimated at between $80,000,000 and Chicago, Nov. 11.—A meeting of citizens this afternoon voted $100,000 relief to the Boston sufferers, and appointed a committee headed by Robert Collier, to convey the sum to Boston. They leave this evening with the cash.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Dispatches have been received from Detroit, Columbus, O., Indianapolis, and other cities, stating that meetings have been called by their respective Mayors to devise ways and means to relieve the sufferers in Boston.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Governor Booth has issued his proclamation appointing the 28th day of November, in accordance with the President's proclamation, as Thanksgiving Day, as follows:

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 7, 1872.

WHEREAS, The President of the United States, by public proclamation, has appointed the 28th day of November, instant, as the day of Thanksgiving to the people of the Nation; and in conformity to a custom sanctioned alike by usage and propriety, I, Newton Booth, Governor of California, recommend to the people of the State that they abstain as far as practicable from ordinary secular labors and pursuits on said day and devote it to grateful acknowledgments of blessings received; to religious exercises in their respective places of worship; to dispensing kind charities to the unfortunate, and generous hospitality to strangers, and to innocent recreations.

By virtue of the provisions of the law I do hereby set apart the said 28th day of November, instant, as Thanksgiving Day, and declare it to be a legal holiday. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed. Done at the city of Sacramento, California, this seventh day of November, A. D. 1872.

BLOWING HOT AIR CO.—Before the late election, the Mail was fabricated at the enormous expenditures made by the Board of Supervisors. But now, after the election, Pronto!—it discovers that its opposition can effect nothing and as bravely as a lion goes in for general improvements as they become necessary in different parts of the county, as indicated in the following from its week's issue: "We are always pleased to note the improvements going on among us individually, but to a greater extent we are gratified at the prospect before us for more thorough and energetic action in that line in our county. Also a good substantial bridge at the mouth of Cache Creek Canyon, for the benefit of the people in the Canyon. This is to be built immediately at considerable expense to the county. Also a road across the mountains from Cache Creek Canyon, by way of Quicksilver mines to Lake County."

REPAIRING THE BUREAU.—It seems to be the determination of the County to make a substantial, permanent job in repairing the break in the railroad between Davisville and Sacramento, and the repairs are expected to be completed before Winter sets in. The piling, of which there is over a mile in length more than before, is nearly completed. About five hundred men are employed, including a large force of Chinese. We learn the the 1st of December is the time set for completing the entire work.

COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The annual meeting of the Teachers' Institute will commence at the Hotel California on Wednesday next, Nov. 20th, and continue three days. Judging from the programme published and by similar previous exhibitions, the occasion will be one of great interest and profit to teachers, scholars and the public generally. State Superintendent Bolander and others high in the cause of education are expected to be present. No doubt there will be a very large attendance.

THE ETNA.—As will be seen by the new card of the ETNA Fire Insurance Company, its losses at the great Boston fire amount to over a million dollars, every dollar of which will be promptly paid, and still the company will have a surplus capital of over $2,000,000. A company that is prompt enough to pay such enormous losses is certainly deserving of patronage. No destructive property is safe without insurance. The agency of the ETNA is at J. L. Simpson's drug store.

CONFLAGRATION IN BOSTON.—We publish on our first page the details of an awful conflagration which occurred in Boston on the 9th and 10th insts. The first estimates of the loss were even greater than at the great Chicago fire of last year, but later reports have reduced them to somewhere about $100,000,000. It is thought that the greater part will be promptly paid by the insurance companies.

SAFE AT LAST.—The two Brothers, arrested for heavy forgery in San Francisco, and confined in jail, have their escape; but a reward of several thousand dollars being offered for their recapture, stimulated the officers so that they succeeded in finding the guilty escapades, and they are now safely lodged in the State Penitentiary at San Quentin.

WOODLAND BAKERY.—Mr. O. Schuler, who has been for several years connected with the Woodland Bakery, has bought out the interest of his partner, Mr. Selber, and will hereafter conduct the business in sole and private property. The establishment is doing a very good business as it deserves to. We trust the patronage of the public will be liberally bestowed.

NEW FIRM AT KNIGHT'S LANDING.—The advertisement of Don Bros. will be seen in these columns. They succeed in the business of the late firm of Knight, Selber & Goldman, the latter member of the old firm having sold out his interest to return to Europe. We bespeak for the new firm a continuance of patronage by the liberal public in the northern and southern parts of the county.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS.—Quicksilver Precinct has not yet sent in its returns, and consequently the Board of Supervisors are obliged to adjourn from day to day until Monday next, when, if the returns are not all in, they will proceed to count the vote of all the other precincts. Till then the exact vote of the county will not be known.

SENTENCED.—Matt. Reno, a minor, convicted of the crime of grand larceny, in the County Court recently, has been since sentenced by his honor, Judge Hutton, to the Industrial School at San Francisco for one year.

TUNERS' HALL.—The German Turn Verein Association of this place have commenced the erection of a Hall upon their lot on the south side of Court street, opposite the Court House; size 40 by 80 feet, one story.

Election Returns.

We give below a table from the Union, showing the Presidential vote of the State, so far as the returns have come to hand. Many, though not all of the figures are official; others are approximate. The general result will not be essentially changed by the receipt of complete returns:

SECRET READINGS.—The residents of Prairie School District assembled at their school house on Friday evening Nov. 8th to listen to Miss Viola Roberson, who had been previously engaged by the teacher, Mr. C. O. Perkins, to favor them with select readings. The exercises commenced at 7 1/2 o'clock and lasted till about 9, and consisted of a series of selections in both prose and poetry, in all of which the reader acquitted herself with pleasing ability and displayed talent of a high order. The audience seemed delighted with the entertainment throughout, and at its close retired to their homes feeling that the evening had been spent not only with much amusement and pleasure, but with a large amount of profit also.

NOTICE.—The person or persons who stole a man look—the maps belonging to the Congregational Church School, from Central Hall, are specially and urgently requested to return them as soon as they can possibly get through with them, as it is a great loss to the little folks to be deprived of their use. If they are unwilling to take the trouble to return them, if they will inform the editor of this paper of their whereabouts, he is satisfied the Superintendent will take the trouble to go for them.

CHANGES OF BASE.—Messrs. Hyman & Sussman have purchased the stock in trade of Messrs. Harling, Welch & Co., at Buckley, and Mr. Morris Hyman's stock, from his store in Woodland, has been added to it. The new firm has already commenced to do business in Buckley.

"FLORAL GUIDE."—We refer the reader to the card of Jas. Vick, of Rochester, New York, who now offers his "Floral Guide for 1873," illustrated, price 25 cents. It contains a great deal of information that is useful to florists and horticulturalists in particular.

BACK AGAIN.—C. R. Frost, Esq., and family arrived here on Monday last. They have been on a visit to Illinois. Our people will be glad to know that they have returned safely after a very pleasant visit among their family and old friends.

RETURNED.—Mrs. I. Haffy and children returned to Woodland from Germany on Sunday last. Mr. Haffy remained in Berlin where he is commissioned by the United States Grand Jury of the United States District Court at San Francisco to institute that order.

Town and County Matters.

Farmers' Club Convention.
The Farmers of Yolo County are requested to meet in the Town of Woodland, in said county, on Saturday, Nov. 23d, 1872, to take into consideration the propriety of organizing a Farmers' Club in said county, on the basis of the following resolutions:
J. A. HALL, Secy.
J. A. HALL, Pres.

Yolo Boundaries.

The vexed question as to the boundary of Yolo County in the mountain position appears to be as unsettled as it ever was, notwithstanding the frequent attempts by legislation to fix them. The survey made at the instance of the Supervisors of the counties of Yolo, Napa and Lake, by the Deputy Surveyor General of the State, it is said amounts to nothing at all, on account of the failure to preserve and file the notes of his work. Somewhat of other Napa County came very near shamefully fumbling Yolo last winter in the Legislature, by procuring the passage of an Act in the Political Code, giving over to Napa a great part of our mountain territory, including the valuable quicksilver region, and approaching immediately to the head of Capay Valley proper. However, there was an Act passed the last of April last, which fortunately overrides the Code in this relation, remitting us back to the Act of March 3d, 1866, which calls for boundaries including within Yolo the Reed Mines; and the late Act also confirms the Sanford survey provided it was made in accordance with the Act of 1866. But how is that to be shown, and what tribunal to determine it? It may be necessary to take steps in conjunction with the other counties to have the Surveyor General make a new survey and location of the boundary.

This matter is of great importance to Yolo County, for the territory possesses immense prospective value, and the county is now proceeding to construct a turnpike road from the head of the open valley of Cache Creek over the mountains to the mines, a distance not exceeding ten miles, with an easy, practicable grade, and when completed will be the highway for the extensive trade and transportation of all the mines in that section, including those of Knoxville. It is rumored that Napa County is casting about and preparing to enclose in its county from making the graded road, and it would divert from Napa City some forty or fifty thousand dollars worth of business annually. It is hoped Napa will not succeed in heading us off—that we may have our rights, and the boundary fixed and settled to our satisfaction, and after the turnpike is completed, our citizens may go on and build the narrow gauge railroad to the head of the Canyon, and thus securely appropriate beyond contest the valuable resources and business of the mountain country naturally tributary to us.

Insurance Matters.—The losses of the Phoenix of Hartford, Home of New York and North British and Mercantile of London, and Edinburgh fire Insurance Companies, by the Boston Conflagration, fall short of Two Millions—while the combined assets amount to Twenty-three Millions. This combination being still the strongest Insurance Guild in America, persons desiring insurance in either of the above named companies will find the Yolo Co. Agents, Geo. D. Fiske & Co., ready to write for them at equitable rates. All losses will be adjusted without delay and promptly paid in U. S. gold coin. Office Masonic Block Woodland.

THE CIRCUS.—The Circus advertised to exhibit in Woodland on Friday next, Nov. 22d, is doubtless one of far greater proportions than any that has visited this place the present season. Many of those connected with it are old favorites in California, and its attractions are said to be first-class in their respective roles; the performers being good and the clowns excellent. And here we have in the apt quotation: "Let those now laugh who never laughed before." And they who've always laughed now laugh the more.

LIVELY FIRM.—Business at the Real Estate Headquarters of Geo. D. Fiske & Co. is going lively, about $10,000, worth of Town property having changed hands the past week. They still have some very desirable property for sale on terms that will suit any one desiring of obtaining a home or business location. Now is the time to buy and save money.

Good Opportunity.—An opportunity will be offered on Saturday, Nov. 23d, to secure a good bargain by purchasing the property of the estate of the late George T. Champlin, deceased, which will be sold by E. R. Bush, Esq., Administrator, at the Court House, at 10 o'clock on that day.

Shocks.—Slight shocks of earthquake were felt at Austin, Nevada on Tuesday evening, and at Stockton on Wednesday at 2 p. m.

REDUCING STOCK AND SETTLING UP.—My patrons who are in arrears on my books have been politely invited to square accounts, and some have responded, while others have not. Accounts remaining unsettled after thirty days will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. I shall also make sales during that time at cost prices, to reduce my stock and prepare for new goods. W. L. OGBURN, Woodland, Oct. 19th, 1872.

It is an ESTABLISHED FACT, that Consumption can be cured; but it is far better to prevent the cruel disease from fastening itself on the system, by the timely use of a remedy like Dr. WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY. This standard preparation will speedily cure a cough or cold, and even Consumption after it has taken its great power.

FOR THE VERY BEST PHOTOGRAPHS, go to Bradley & Rolston's Gallery, without mistake ascend in the Elevator—429 Montgomery St., San Francisco.

MARRIED.
At the residence of the bride's mother, in Sacramento, on November 15th, by Elder J. N. Pendegast, Thomas F. Lowe and Miss Emma S. Jenkins.

The bride and groom were both well and happy. The wedding feast—both cake and wine—in liberal quantity. The happy pair have our most earnest hope that they will for many long years enjoy uninterrupted happiness in the love and society known only to man and wife.

DIED.

In Woodland, November 6th, Dwight S. Hopkins, a native of Indiana, aged 33 years.

Symptoms of Catarrh.
Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of nasal passages, discharge falling into throat, sometimes watery, watery, acid, thick and mucous, mucous, purulent, mucopurulent, bloody, purid, offensive, etc. In others a dryness, dry, watery, weak or inflamed, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing, or by chronic inflammation, scabrous ulcers, constant desire to clear nose and throat, by constant use of nasal sprays, offensive breath, impaired sight and taste, dizziness, mental depression, tickling cough, idleness and laziness.

All the above symptoms are common to the Catarrh of the nose, or sinuses, or complications yet thousands of cases annually terminate in consumption, and end in the grave without manifesting one-third of the above symptoms. No disease is more common or less understood by the people than the Catarrh of the nose. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. Remember that the genuine has the words, "L. V. Pierce, M.D., Sole Proprietor, Buffalo, N. Y.," printed on the outside wrapper; also his portrait, name and address printed on the wrapper. Beware of cheap imitations. In this way you will be sure to get the genuine.

CARRIAGE AND WAGON MANUFACTORY!

Elliott Brothers, Prop'rs, CORNER MAIN AND FOURTH STREETS, Opposite Gas and Water Works, WOODLAND, CAL.

LIVERYMEN, FARMERS AND TEAMSTERS

Will find my make of BUGGIES, SPRING and LUMBER WAGONS, the best in any market for their use.

REASONS WHY!

BECAUSE they have as good if not the best reputation at home. Each Wagon is perfect in all its parts.

Easy in Society.

"I'd rather thresh in the barn all day," said Reuben Riley to his sister, as he adjusted an uncomfortable collar about his neck, "than go to the party to-night. I never know what to do with myself, stuck up in the parlor all the evening. If the fellows would pull their coats off and go out and chop wood on a match, there'd be some fun in that!"

"Well, I hate it as bad as you do, Reuben," said sister Lucy. "The fact is we never go anywhere, to see anybody, and no wonder we feel so awkward when we happen to stir out."

The remarks of this brother and sister were but the echoes of the sentiment of many other farmers' boys and girls when invited out to spend a social evening. But poor Lucy had not hit the true cause of the difficulty, it was not because they seldom went anywhere, but because there was such a wide difference between their home and the company's manners. The true way to feel at ease in any gathering is to wear it often. If the pleasing garb of good manners is only put on upon rare occasions, it will never fit well and seem uncomfortable.

Learn to behave properly at home, to cultivate yourself. Do not stand or lounge about in an ungainly attitude but acquire a manly, erect bearing. I have never seen such vigorous, hardy manhood in any class as among cultivated farmers. Their simple manners are especially looked after.

If you are so unfortunate as to have a mother who is careless in this regard, you must do the best you can to remove the early defects in your home training. Note carefully how well-behaved people behave, and do your best to imitate them. It is noble to be an imitator of all that which is good and beautiful. Above all, if you wish to be at home in society, fill your brain with ideas. Set your mind at work. Wake it out of its sluggishness by good, stirring thought. Take the newspapers and read them thoroughly. Knowledge is a great power in many more senses than one. If you go into society with something in your mind worth talking about, you will not fail to find listeners who will treat you with respect; and where you are well received, you will not fail very soon to find yourself at ease.—Country Gentleman.

Card from Horace Greeley.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8th.—The Tribune to-morrow will publish the following card:—A CARD.—The undersigned resumes the editorship of the Tribune, which he relinquished on embarking in another line of business some months since. It shall be his endeavor to make this a thoroughly independent journal, treating all parties and political movements with judicious firmness and candor, but courting the favor and deprecating the wrath of no one. If he can hereafter say anything that will tend heartily to unite the whole American people in broad sympathy of universal amnesty and impartial suffrage, he will gladly do so. For the present, however, he can best command that consummation by silence and forbearance. The victory in our late struggle can hardly fail to take the whole subject of Southern rights and wrongs into earnest consideration, and to them, for the present, he will limit his efforts. He will not be a candidate for any office; and as he is in full accord with either of the great parties which have hitherto divided the country, he will be able and will endeavor to give a wider and steadier regard to the progress of science, industry and the useful arts than a partisan journal can do. He will not be provoked to indulgence in those bitter personalities which are recognized as the bane of journalism. He is seized by a generous purpose, he will do his best to make the Tribune a power in the broader field it now contemplates as when human freedom was in peril it was in the arena of political partisanship.

HORACE GREELEY.

GREAT FIRE IN LONDON.—LONDON, November 11.—A terrible fire broke out in this city today, causing great consternation and alarm. The flames originated in the extensive mills known as the London Grain Mills, and spread with great rapidity. The men were quickly on the ground and were aided in their endeavors to suppress the conflagration by numbers of the citizens, but without effect. The mills, together with a number of surrounding buildings, being entirely destroyed. A number of persons were in the burning building, when the walls fell with a crash, carrying every thing with them.

All those in the building were buried below the ruins and were either crushed by the falling debris or burned alive. All efforts to save them proved fruitless. The exact number of lives lost is not known, but it is believed that either eight or ten persons perished in the burning mill. The fire burned for several hours before the flames were entirely subdued. The work of removing the bodies has commenced, and a large body of workmen are now engaged in the search. The total loss is estimated at seven hundred thousand pounds sterling. One fireman was killed and several wounded. The fire has caused great consternation and alarm in the city, and it is believed that London has suffered since 1861.

REVISION OF THE U. S. STATUTES. Benjamin Vaughan, appointed by the Commissioner of the U. S. Statutes at Large, is making an effort to complete the printing of the work so that it may be considered and acted upon by the next session of Congress. He wishes it generally known that copies of the various pamphlets will be cheerfully sent to any person interested to examine any portion of the revision, whose address reaches him. The Bee has received from him pamphlets containing the revision of the Postal service, Duties upon Imports, Guano Islands, Smithsonian Institute, Bankruptcy, Consular Offices, and provisions applying to all the departments of War, State, Treasury, Justice, Navy, Interior, Agriculture, etc.—Sacramento Record.

A FEARFUL LEAP.—A fearful balloon accident occurred recently at De Kalb, Illinois. An aeronaut had a balloon ready to ascend, when, before he had entered the car, it broke loose and flew upward. A hanging rope caught around the leg of a man named McMann and carried him up a height of about a hundred feet, when he managed to climb into the basket. When the balloon had reached a distance of 400 feet from the earth McMann deliberately jumped out and was picked up dead.
